

Fraud, Waste & Abuse Training Quiz

To enter your answers, go to:

<https://smbsweb.med.buffalo.edu/ubmd/training.aspx>

1. _____ requires intent to obtain payment and knowledge that your actions are wrong.
 - A. Fraud
 - B. Waste
 - C. Abuse
 - D. All the above
2. Unknowingly billing for unnecessary medical services is an example of _____.
 - A. Fraud
 - B. Waste
 - C. Abuse
 - D. All the above
3. The Office of Inspector General may impose civil monetary penalties for a number of reasons, including:
 - A. Providing services or items while provider is excluded.
 - B. Failing to grant OIG timely access to records.
 - C. Paying to influence referrals.
 - D. All the above
4. Retaliation for reporting compliance concerns in good faith will not be tolerated, regardless of whether or not a violation is found as a result of the initial report.
 - A. True
 - B. False
5. Once fraud, waste or abuse has been detected, it must be promptly corrected. Corrective action may include:
 - A. Adopting new prepayment edits or document review requirements, and revising policies and procedures.
 - B. Conducting additional mandated training and providing educational materials.
 - C. Termination
 - D. All the above